The Political Pot

It is a good bet that Lambert Cadwalader, of Villanova, will be the next Representative at Harrisburg from the First Legislative District of Montgomery County. The principal reason for this is that he received the endorsement of the Republican Harmony Committee at a meeting in Norristown Tuesday afternoon. The second reason is that the First Legislative District, composed of Lower Merion, Narberth, West Conshohocken and Bridgeport, is overwhelmingly Republican. If elected Mr. Cadwalader will succeed Fred C. Peters, who was elected County Commissioner last fall and is not a candidate for re-election to the Legislature.

A retired rancher, Mr. Cadwalader lives at Spring Mill road and Mt. Pleasant avenue, Villanova. He is a graduate of Episcopal Academy, Overbrook; St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Princeton University. He is 49 years old, married and has one daughter. He was born in Fort Washington, Pa., and has lived in Villanova for twelve years. After graduation from college he went to Oregon, where he assumed ownership and management of a large ranch. He is a director of the Pennsylvania Company and interested in other business and financial enterprises. A hunting and fishing enthusiast, he is interested in problems of conservation and for recreation plays golf and goes horseback riding. Mr. Cadwalader has three brothers living. They are Charles M. B. Cadwalader, who is managing director of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, and Richard M. Cadwalader, Jr., both of Fort Washington, and Dr. W. B. Cadwalader, of Villanova.

The meeting of the Harmony Committee also resulted in selection of candidates for Congress, delegates and alternate delegates to the Republican National Convention, members of the State Committee and Representatives in the Legislature from the Second and Third Districts of the county.

The slate follows:

Delegates to National Convention—Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Norristown publisher, and Miss Nancy P. Highley, of Norristown.

Alternate delegates to National Convention—Louis A. Hirsch, of Cheltenham, and Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., of Haverford, president of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women.

Members of Republican State Committee—State Senator Theodore Lane Bean and Mrs. Helen N. Ridington, of Lansdale.

Congress—Hon. J. William Ditter, of Ambler.

Legislature—First District, Lambert Cadwalader; Second District, E. Arnold Forrest, of Conshohocken; Third District, John H. Longaker, of Pottstown; Edwin O. Winner, of Hatboro, and Harry Z. Wampole, of Telford.

Wampole was accepted as the standard bearer, succeeding William E. Zimmerman, of Lansdale, who is serving his second term.

Clarence L. Ederer, of Melrose Park, who announced his candidacy for Congress, withdrew from the field in the interest of party harmony following a conference last Friday.

Last week the Political Pot stated that a new Republican committeeman and committeewoman have been selected in the General Wayne district of Lower Merion. A subscriber points out that the statement is somewhat misleading since these selections are unofficial and must be borne out by the results of the primary election April 28. If the candidates mentioned last week, John H. Link and Mrs. W. Russell Green, are approved by the voters at the primary they will then be the committeeman and committeewoman of the district. Now they are only candidates.

Autocar Sales Are Up 102% Over 1935

January and February Show Best Volume of Business Since 1930

ANNUAL MEETING 13TH

Sales of Autocar trucks during January and February are running 102 per cent ahead of the same months last year, it was learned this week.

The months, an official of the Ardmore company said, are the best the concern has seen since 1930. A steady flow of sales, well spread both geographically and industrially, indicate a decided and genuine pickup in business.

In addition it was reported that sales of Studebaker trucks sold through the Autocar branches are running 98 per cent ahead of last year for January and February. This week has shown a continuation of the increased volume of sales, it was stated.

A plan for recapitalization of the Autocar Company accompanied the call for the annual meeting of stockholders of the concern, to be held next Friday, March 13, in Ardmore.

According to the annual report, sent to stockholders together with the recapitalization proposal, Autocar suffered a net loss of $164,812 for 1935 after charging off $184,953 for depreciation.

The balance sheet shows an excess of $3,273,380 in current assets over current liabilities, which is at a ratio of three to one.

The following proposals are included in the recapitalization plan:

Raising of $300,000 of new capital by an issue of ten-year 7 per cent debentures.

Payment from funds so obtained of $181,000, or 20 per cent, on the 7 per cent first mortgage bonds now outstanding in the amount of $907,000.

Extension of the maturity date of the first mortgage bonds for ten years from May 1, 1937, in return for the 20 per cent payment.

Subordination of the new debentures to bank loans.

Giving of a bonus of common stock to obtain the new capital.

Waiver of $40 of accrued dividends on preferred stock and exchange of such stock in the ratio of one old share for one new preferred share and five shares of new common stock.

Exchange of present common for new common on a one for two basis.

Loyalty Dinner Dance Planned by Democrats

Affair on March 17th is Sponsored by L. M.-Narberth Committee

AT GREEN HILL FARMS

A Democratic loyalty dinner-dance will be held at Green Hill Farms, Overbrook, Tuesday evening, March 17.

Plans for the affair originated with the Democratic Committee of Lower Merion and Narberth, under the leadership of John T. Durnin, of Penn Wynne, chairman of the Township Committee.

It will be in the nature of a county-wide event, however, as enthusiastic support has been pledged by the Democratic party of the whole county.

Purpose of the affair is to emphasize loyalty of Democrats to party principles, capable leadership and individual helpfulness.

The committee in charge feels that the date, St. Patrick's Day, offers a fine opportunity to enjoy a delightful evening. A program of dinner, entertainment and dancing is being arranged. Music will be furnished by the San Del Ray Orchestra with Dick Carey as vocalist.

Announcement of speakers, who will be few in number, will be made shortly. Tickets may be procured from the Democratic Committee of each local district.

P. T. A. Study Group Wed.

The Early Childhood group of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday, March 11, at 1.30 P. M. Mrs. S. J. McCartney is the leader of this group. The meetings are held in the social room of the American Legion.

Paroled

MURDOCH P. CLANEY
former Merion Title and Trust Company official, who was paroled by the Montgomery County Court after serving slightly over one year of his sentence.

Court Grants Parole to Murdoch Claney

Former Merion Title Official Had Served One Year of Sentence

REJOINED HIS FAMILY

Murdoch P. Claney, former executive vice-president of the closed Merion Title and Trust Company, was paroled by the Montgomery County Court last Friday.

The former bank official had served slightly over one year of his two to four year sentence for misapplication of the institution's funds.

Illness and the needs of his family are understood to have influenced the Court to consider the parole application favorably. Judges Knight and Corson granted the petition.

The first application for a parole, presented by his attorney, James H. Egan, last September was refused by Judge Knight on November 1, 1935.

Mr. Claney is reported to have joined his wife, Helen, and four children, who have been living with relatives in Narberth.

Brought to trial originally at Norristown May 1, 1933, Mr. Claney was found guilty by the jury after a four-week session. Substitution of Judge Corson for the trial judge, J. Ambler Williams, who became ill, provided the basis for an appeal for a new trial. This was granted by the Superior Court in July, 1934, and the second trial opened February 4, 1935. He was again found guilty and sentenced to jail on February 15, 1935. During most of his sentence he was assigned for work at the prison farm at Eagleville.

"Lot's Wife" to be Given at Narberth Players Tues.

"Lot's Wife," by Percival Wilde, will be given at the regular meeting of the Narberth Players Tuesday evening, March 10, at the Narberth school auditorium. It will be presented by special permission of Walter H. Baker & Co.

Faith Farmer is coaching the play, which includes several experienced members of the Players in its cast. The program includes other numbers of interest. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Give Varied Program at Community Club

Luncheon Followed by Talks on History of Borough and China and Glass

DR. FENWICK COMING

Members of the Women's Community Club of Narberth were presented with a varied program at the meeting in the Community Building on Tuesday afternoon. The affair was opened with a luncheon at 12.30, and Mrs. George W. Orth, chairman of the Home Institute, was in charge of the program.

Mrs. E. C. Griswold, chairman of the Citizenship Department of the club, gave an interesting review of the history of Narberth from its earliest days. She also told how the borough is governed.

Another speaker was Mrs. F. G. Myers, of Norristown, chairman of the American Home of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs, whose topics were "Dignity of Work in the Home" and "Courtesy." The P.-T. A. Chorus, under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Drennen, sang three numbers. The accompanist was Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin.

The final speaker was Mrs. M. Geraldine McCormick, who gave a talk on the "History and Romance of China and Glass," which was full of interesting information. Mrs. McCormick came through the courtesy of Gilman & Co., Ardmore. Mrs. Charles B. Stoudt was the hostess of the afternoon.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday, March 17. It will be in charge of the International Relations Committee, Mrs. Anne Darville, chairman.

Westminster Circle to Give Dinner for Husbands 12th

The Westminster Circle of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will give its annual covered dish dinner for the husbands of the members on Thursday evening, March 12, in the church parlors.

Mrs. William J. Robertson is the general chairman in charge of the affair. Those assisting her are Mrs. John C. Nash, of the entertainment committee, who will present a play as a feature of the program and Mrs. James H. Jewell, also a member of the entertainment committee, who also will provide novel forms of entertainment.

Mrs. Harry A. Simpson is the chairman of the kitchen and Mrs. H. F. Darnes of the dining room.

Granted Divorce

Mrs. Helen Margaret Hall, of Lower Merion, was granted a divorce by Judge Dannehower at Norristown Monday from Albert Hall on grounds of desertion and cruelty. The couple eloped to Elkton July 8, 1932, and were married when they were both students at Lower Merion High School.

Cubs to Get Charter

The Narberth Cub pack, junior scout organization, will be formally presented its charter at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting March 23. A hobby show for the boys and their fathers of the Narberth, Ardmore and Penn Wynne packs will be held April 3.

Alternate Delegate

MRS. JOHN Y. HUBER, JR.
of Haverford, who was slated this week by the Republican Harmony Committee for alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention.

Junior Club Sponsors "Musical Moments"

One-Act Play Also Presented With Betty Bruneel in Starring Role

MAKE WELFARE GIFT

The public was entertained by the Narberth Junior Community Club at its clubroom in the Community Building last Thursday. The juniors sponsored "Musical Moments," played by a trio of talented artists—violinist, 'cellist and pianist—whose services were given through the courtesy of the George B. Newton Coal Company. Morris Braun, Thomas Elmer and Clarence Fuhrman played together and in solo such well-known numbers as Brahm's "Hungarian Dance," Schuman's "Traumeri," Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me" with superb mastery.

Prior to the concert the juniors staged and presented, through the chairman of music and dramatics, Mrs. Spencer Smith, a one-act play in which Miss Betty Bruneel, Miss Cecelia Link, Mrs. Robert Price and Mrs. Eleanor Foote performed greatly to the club's credit. Miss Bruneel and Mrs. Smith colaborated in coaching and staging the play, and Mrs. Foote helped with make-up, lighting effects and settings, all very effective. Miss Bruneel, who is one of Narberth Players' outstanding performers, gave a most artistic interpretation of a gypsy fortune teller's part.

The other three members of the cast expressed widely varying characteristics forcibly and well in short but difficult lines and gestures. Invitations were sent to all clubs of the district and Mrs. Charles Savage, Montgomery County chairman of juniors; Miss Helen McGlaughlin, president of Chester juniors and a member of Philadelphia's Twentieth Century Guild, were present with escorts. Mrs. Smith and her committee served refreshments. The decorative scheme was in red, white and blue.

Additional charitable gifts have been made recently by the juniors. To further Mrs. Mueller's welfare work a check for $25 was sent her to use where it would do most good. Another check for $25 was assigned by the welfare chairman pro tem, Mrs. Edward Codugan, to the assistance of a needy local family through the offices of Miss Drain, visiting nurse connected with the Narberth health center. Five dollars has been given

Mulieres to Make Plans for Fireman's Banquet Monday

An important business meeting of the Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company will be held at 2 P. M. on Monday, March 9, in Elm Hall. All members are urged to be present. At this time committees will be appointed to take charge of the annual firemen's banquet to be held on Thursday, April 16. Plans for the banquet will also be discussed. A social hour will follow.

Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton, of Chestnut avenue, will give a benefit card party for the Mulieres at her home on Wednesday, March 12 at 2 P. M. This party is open to the public and all are welcome to attend. It is being given to raise funds for the banquet.

New Pastor to Preach in Borough on Sunday

Rev. Archer E. Anderson, Presbyterian Minister, Arrived Yesterday

COMES HERE FROM TEXAS

The Rev. Archer E. Anderson, new pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, arrived in the borough yesterday and will preach his first sermon this Sunday morning.

Mr. Anderson, who is married and has three daughters, will live at 112 Dudley avenue, Narberth.

In addition to preaching at the morning and evening services this Sunday, he will teach the Young People's Bible Class in the morning.

Wednesday Mr. Anderson spent in Baltimore on his way from St. Louis, where he preached last Sunday at the largest Presbyterian Church in the city, the pastorate of Dr. Russell Paynter.

A call was extended to Mr. Anderson to become pastor of the Narberth church following a unanimous vote at a congregational meeting on February 4. He wired his acceptance of the call to Warren S. Bossert, chairman of the committee appointed to seek a new pastor.

A graduate of Texas Christian College and the Evangelical Theological Seminary of Dallas, Mr. Anderson comes to Narberth from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church at Cleburne, Tex.

He has served as a missionary for several years in Central America and has won an outstanding position in the Presbyterian Church in Texas. He was born in Elizabeth, N. J., thirty-six years ago.

Mr. Anderson succeeds the Rev. Dr. John Van Ness as pastor of the local church. Dr. Van Ness retired from active service November 15, 1935, after completing forty years in the ministry and twenty-five of them as pastor of the Narberth church. He will continue his connection with the church as pastor emeritus.

Folk Festival Given by Local Girl Scouts

Served as Preliminary for All-City Event in April

HELD IN BRYN MAWR

The auditorium of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church was filled to capacity last Saturday afternoon when the Main Line Girl Scout troops held their International Folk Festival as a preliminary try-out for the All-city International Folk Festival which is to be held at Irvine auditorium, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets, Philadelphia, on Saturday, April 11, at 2 o'clock. At that time the troops holding first place in dancing and singing from each district of the Philadelphia area will perform.

The judges for the occasion were Miss Ursula Murray, who has a school of dancing in Ardmore; Miss Julia Landis, of Edge Lawn in Ambler, who teaches at Wynnewood road school and has had an active part in Girl Scouting as a qualified trainer, and Donald L. Johnson, a vocal instructor at Lower Merion Junior High School.

Narberth Troop 8, captained by Miss Christine Mahl, rendered an effective German spinning song with a Girl Scout in costume at an old-fashioned spinning wheel. Cynwyd Troop 44, Miss Emma Croasdale as captain, earned the third place in singing by "The March of the Men of Harlech," with a scout in an authentic sample Welsh costume. The Baldwin School Troop, Miss Lydia Hemphill as captain, sang an English folk song called "Sellinger's Dance." Cynwyd Troop 94, Miss Margaret Robins as

New Editor Appointed

The Livingston Publishing Company announces the resignation of Robert M. Cameron as Editor of its newspapers. Edwin L. Paxson has been appointed to the position, effective next Monday.

Mr. Paxson has been a member of the staff of the papers for five years and has enjoyed a wide and varied experience as a newspaperman in Norristown and Cleveland, Ohio.

State to Conduct House to House Canvass to Enforce Dog Licensing

A house to house canvass to enforce licensing of all dogs on the Main Line will be conducted after April 1 by the dog law enforcement bureau of the State Department of Agriculture, it was learned this week. Fred Walzer, former Narberth magistrate, is head of the enforcement bureau.

Agents of the bureau will check every house in Lower Merion, Haverford and Radnor Townships and the Borough of Narberth for unlicensed animals, it is understood. Owners of unlicensed dogs will be subject to fines.

Licenses may be obtained through any notary public, at Norristown for Montgomery County residents, and at Media for persons living in Delaware County.

Licenses may also be secured from Mary Scott McShane in the Township Building, Ardmore. Over 2,000 have been issued in Lower Merion since the first of the year.

A license costs $1.10 for a male dog and $2.10 for a female. There is an additional notary charge of 15 cents.

Attends Convention

Dr. LeRoy A. King, of Narberth, attended the convention of the National Educational Association held last week in St. Louis as a delegate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. King, president of the Narberth School Board, is professor of educational administration at the University's school of education.

Editorial Comment

The parole granted to Murdoch P. Claney last Friday may be taken as an indication of the Court's feeling that the former Merion Title and Trust Company official has made sufficient expiation and that the ends of justice are no longer served by keeping him in jail. As was the case with other banking institutions which closed their doors, it was easier for depositors to center their wrath on one man and hold him responsible for the loss of their savings than to attempt to understand the complex forces which held sway before the crash came with its aftermath of bank failures. Perhaps a social minded researcher will some day unravel the twisted skein of events and disclose the real causes of the Merion's closing.

With the announcement this week of the slate to be backed by the Republican Harmony Committee in Montgomery County at the Primary election April 28, the political atmosphere is a bit clearer. Congressman J. William Ditter is virtually assurred of being returned to his seat at Washington and the election of Lambert Cadwalader as Representative in the Legislature at Harrisburg from the first district is conceded. The tide of political sentiment is definitely on the up and up for the Republican party locally and Montgomery County leaders are hoping to pile up the largest majorities in the history of the county. Popularity of the Democratic cause reached its peak in the Boyd-Ely election in 1934 and has been on the down grade since, as was evidenced by the special election in the spring of 1935 and the general election last fall.

Several hundred Main Liners were enlightened Monday night about the work being conducted at Morristown, N. J., in training dogs as guides for the blind. One immediate result of the affair was the donation of $100 by the Bullock-Sanderson Post, American Legion, of Ardmore, to the Seeing Eye. The Main Line Lions Club is also starting a campaign to secure a dog guide for a local blind man.

The hearings to be conducted at Norristown, March 18, by the Local Government Commission of the Pennsylvania Legislature provide an opportunity for citizens to express their views on government and law making. While the Commission has no fixed policy, various items have been set forth in its program as a basis for discussion. These have been divided into three groups and subcommittees named for the consideration of each and the digestion and assimilation of material received at public hearings. One subcommittee will deal with the functions of local government and the present administrative setups. A second will study local government finances, questions of costs and methods of raising revenue. The third will study the issue of local government consolidation. The cardinal purpose of the Commission is to hear from as many people on as many fundamental and vital problems as possible. Those who have ideas and ideals of good government will have an excellent opportunity to advocate them at this hearing. It is a chance to make government of the people and by the people.

Dr. Herbert Fischer and Elizabeth Pearson Wed in Overbrook Last Saturday

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Pearson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Pearson, of Avon road, Merion, to Dr. Earl Herbert Fischer, of Wayne and Ardmore, son of Mrs. William Fischer, and the late Mr. Fischer, of Cynwyd, took place last Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Overbrook Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Dr. George Emerson Barnes, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Dr. C. P. Isenberger, of St. Matthews Church, Philadelphia.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned on long simple lines and a long train. The gown had a high neckline and was finished with a Peter Pan collar trimmed with rows of braided satin. Her long, tight sleeves fell in points over her hands and a narrow sash of braided satin encircled her waist and was suspended to the hem of the gown. Tiny satin buttons decorated the gown in the front and her veil of tulle, which extended beyond the train, was fastened to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and white orchids.

Mrs. Ernest C. Smith, of Woodbury, N. J., the matron of honor, and Miss Margaret Smith, of Bala-Cynwyd, the maid of honor, wore gowns of coral lace over matching satin slips and large picture hats of coral tulle. Mrs. Smith carried a bouquet in which blue flowers predominated and Miss Smith, a bouquet in which rose pink predominated. The bridesmaids, Miss Vivian Walton, of Merion, and Miss Billee Fenimore, of Hartford, Conn., wore gowns of aquamarine blue lace and large picture hats of matching tulle. Their bouquets were of spring flowers.

Dr. Carl Fischer, of Woodbury, acted as best man for his brother and the ushers included Mr. Paul Scull, of Cynwyd; Mr. John S. Haynes, of Philadelphia; Mr. Ernest C. Smith, of Woodbury, and Mr. Bernard Fischer, another brother of the bridegroom.

A reception at Green Hill Farms followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Pearson wore a gown of gray chiffon and a hat of purple. Her bag matched her hat and she wore a corsage of purple orchids.

Mrs. Fischer was gowned in black velvet and her corsage was also purple orchids.

The church was beautifully decorated with large ferns, palms and spring flowers. Lawrence Curry, organist of the First Methodist Church of Germantown, played a half hour before the ceremony and the soloist was Mrs. Clyde R. Dengler, who sang three solos. These were "All For You," by Martin; "I Love," by Grieg, and the third entitled "The Nightingale," written by Mr. Curry, which has not yet been published.

Miss Pearson entertained the bridal party at a dinner on Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Fischer will reside at 303 W. Lancaster pike, Wayne.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were Miss Caroline Longworth, of Hickville, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Fenimore and their daughter, Miss Billee Fenimore, of Hartford, Conn., Miss Mary Murray, of Murray Hill, Boston; Mr. Edward Shagiu, of Boston, Mass.; Colonel L. Coyle, U. S. A., of Trenton, N. J.; Dr. Henry I. Klopp and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffman, all of Allentown.

Comedies the Vogue at Narberth; "King of Burlesque" Now Showing

"The King of Burlesque" is at Narberth this week-end, presenting Warner Baxter, Alice Faye and Jack Oakie in a fast moving drama with clever dialogue and catchy songs. The burlesque producer rises to Broadway prominence, steps out of role to marry into "society," but finds that old friends, tried and loyal, are the best after all.

Added feature Saturday at 1 P. M. is "Texas Ranger," starring Buck Jones.

Next Monday and Tuesday Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray and Robert Taylor will give sure-fire comedy entertainment in "The Bride Comes Home." Added "short" of interest will be "The Perfect Tribute," in which Chic Sale impersonates Abraham Lincoln.

Wednesday, Edward Everett Horton will amuse in "Your Uncle Dudley," and at 9 P. M. the usual gift presentation will take place—instead of Tuesday as formerly.

The rest of next week, Eddie Cantor, Parkyakarkus and a beautiful, talented cast and chorus are coming in "Strike Me Pink."

Manager Mannie Salasin announces he has been able to book two shows of outstanding merit for the near future. One is "Midsummer Night's Dream," for which reserved seats will be in order; the other, coming March 27 and 28, is Victor McLaglen in last year's tremendous dramatic success, "The Informer."

"If You Could Only Cook" is at Egyptian; "So Red the Rose" is Next

"If You Could Only Cook" is one of those little-heralded pictures that turn out more enjoyable than ones vaunted as "biggest and best." It is at the Egyptian this Friday and Saturday—a gayly, diverting, romantic comedy with clever dialogue and directed with a nice feeling for comedy values — and excellently acted, by Herbert Marshall, Jean Arthur, Leo Carrillo and Lionel Stander. A Fitzpatrick Traveltalk in color is also on the bill; its subject is "Rural Mexico."

"Peter Pan" is the Main Line Junior Cinema Alliance presentation for young children at the Egyptian's special 10.30 A. M. matinee this Saturday. The film has a distinguished cast who give a delightful performance in Sir James Barrie's whimsical tale of the little girl who never wanted to grow up.

"So Red the Rose" will be the Egyptian's offering Monday and Tuesday. The best-selling novel by Stark Young is reproduced with all the glamor of the Old South and stirring action of the Civil War. The notable cast includes Margaret Sullavan, Walter Connolly, Randolph Scott, Janet Beecher and Dickie Moore.

"Coronodo," next Wednesday and Thursday (Bank Night) is a musical movie of note, featuring Eddie Duchin and his orchestra, Johnny Downs, Betty Burgess, Jack Haley, Andy Devine, Alice White and Leon Errol.

"Rose of the Rancho," next Friday and Saturday, is the movie debut of Gladys Swarthout, Metropolitan star, and has for its considerable leit-motif, comedian Willie Howard.

"The Magnificent Obsession" is coming soon.

This paper welcomes communications on timely subjects.

Alterations in Fire House Are Reported Progressing

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Narberth Fire Company Monday evening in Elm Hall, a report was made on progress of construction work. It includes rooms for the Burgess and Superintendent of Public Works, and alterations downstairs where showers have been installed. All the work will be completed this week.

The fire company was presented with a phonograph, which has been placed in the auditorium. Rental prices for the hall for morning, afternoon and evening may be obtained from J. F. Purse, chairman of the House Committee; George B. Supplee or Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller.

Holman School Play

The Literary Society of the Holman School, Ardmore, will present its annual play this Saturday evening at 8.15 o'clock at the Merion Cricket Club. The play, "Only 38," by A. E. Thomas, is given for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the school. A dance will follow.

Fifteen Township and Boro Residents Drawn for Jury

Fifteen residents of Lower Merion and Narberth have been drawn by the jury commissioners of Montgomery County for service at Norristown during the sessions of Criminal Court the weeks of April 6 and May 4.

No Main Liners were among those selected for the Grand Jury.

Local residents selected for Criminal Court jury duty are as follows:

April 6 — Jean Arnold, Ardmore; George Conley, Narberth; Augusta C. Elliott, Bala-Cynwyd; Josephine Jeffries, Wynnewood; John S. LeBarr, Bala-Cynwyd; Harold Powers, Bryn Mawr; John Wills, Merion.

May 4—Conrad J. Albrecht, Narberth; William Crooks, Villanova; Florence I. Dougherty, Bala-Cynwyd; Gertrude Green, Narberth; Louise W. Lewis, Rosemont; Mary Muller, Narberth; Frank Seeburger, Bala; Lois Thayer, Haverford.

Narberth's Business Council will meet Monday evening at the Arcadia Restaurant.

Faculty Concert Sunday

The Main Line School of Music announces a concert by members of the faculty, at the school, 107 Ardmore avenue, Ardmore, this Sunday afternoon, March 8th, at three o'clock.

Olive Marshall, soprano, will sing a group of songs. John A. Fischer, flute, and Paul Bogarde, trombone, members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, will play solos. Frederic Cook, well known as conductor and as former violinist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, will give a Beethoven sonato, with Christine Haskell at the piano, and also, with Mr. Fischer's assistance, a trio.

* * * *

This is the great rejuvenation month. Winter loses itself in Spring. Drab wardrobes gradually find their way to cedar closets and camphor balls, and only the bright and new, the gay, colorful and refreshing attract us. Fashion is on her throne—a charming lady who has gone into the past for inspiration—a past engagingly womanly—a past when woman lived to dress and all that was required of her was to be beautiful.

IN THIS MARCH OF GREAT EVENTS OUR MAIN LINE STORE WILL HAVE MANY DAILY FEATURES OF FASHION AND VALUE SIGNIFICANCE

We are ready as never before for Spring and Easter business. Watch the daily Philadelphia newspaper advertising for the outstanding March Features which we shall bring to this Store for your greater shopping convenience. New ideas in style merchandising, exceptional values in apparel and accessories for yourself and your family, special purchases of the most wanted articles of the season, and sales in housewares and the things most desired for brightening the home.

That's the Story of March at Our captain, was given second place in dancing by virtue of their Hindu Temple Dance with stage setting, a drummer in costume and a temple dancer with Hindu drapery.

First place in dancing was awarded to Troop 93 of Ardmore, Mrs. H. H. Wallower as captain, for a Norwegian folk dance consisting of various groups of three girls each, using neckerchiefs as connecting links, the first three in Norwegian costume, with the "Mountaineer Song" as accompaniment. Narberth Troop 125, Miss Ingeborg Thaysen as captain, earned first place in singing with a Negro spiritual called "Climbing Jacob's Ladder," led by a little ribbon-tied pig-tailed pickaninny. Haverford Troop 120, Mrs. Charles B. Crockett as captain, gave an American folk dance called "Ol' Dan Tucker."

The most completely costumed group was Overbrook 240, which meets at the convent of the Sacred Heart, with Miss Ruth Sheehan as captain, which gave a mammy song with fervor and feeling.

Troop 125

"Have you heard the news?" cried the Girl Scout as they dashed up the stairs. "Troop 125, our troop, won first place in singing at the International Folk Dancing Festival! Think of it! We'll represent the Main Line in the All-city Folk Festival that is going to be held in the Irvine auditorium."

"Really, you mean it? Oh, I'm glad. What kind of a song did you sing?"

"We sang 'Climbing Jacob's Ladder.' It's a Negro spiritual. Elaine Starr lead and was dressed in costume. She looked cute with little pig-tails sticking out all over her head. Each pigtail was tied with red ribbon."

After the excitement died down it was learned that Elaine Starr, Sonia Anderson, Jane Nulty, Katrina Hoyt, Bernice Sweeney, Betty Hollar, Anita Goodrich, Betty Tobarl, Louise Johnston, Christine Hackman, Marjory Harback, Helen Doty, Eleanor Haywood, Mary McCafferty and Katherine Ridge had participated in the contest. The girls were trained by their lieutenant, Betty Seasholtz, and she did an excellent job.

At the troop meeting on Monday night it was announced that Miss Hamilton, a nurse at Bryn Mawr Hospital, was giving a first-aid course for Girl Scouts at 4 o'clock for six weeks beginning March 2. There is a charge of $1.25 per person to pay for supplies. Barbara Smedley, Sonia Anderson, Jane Nulty, Claire Robinson, Louise Johnston, Betty Jane Beaver and Helen Doty are taking advantage of the course.

There is going to be a scout exhibit to commemorate the Girl Scout birthday of the Narberth School Library. Troop 125 sent its log book.

There is still time to collect those pesky caterpillar egg masses before the contest closes. The Girl Scout that collects these egg masses helps the community to save the foliage and incidentally win the prize that the D. A. R. is offering.

to the Salvation Army drive, for which several Narberth juniors, headed by the president, Miss Alice Francis, are soliciting funds.

It was decided to chance off the hand-made quilt at the next club meeting, March 12, for obtaining further welfare funds.

At a Board of Directors' meeting held Monday night at the home of Miss Francis it was planned for the chairman and board of the Narberth Juniors to entertain the chairman and board of the Narberth Women's Community Club at a card party to be held Wednesday evening, March 18, at the clubroom. Invitations will be sent each senior to be included. Chairman of the special president's committee to arrange this party is Mrs. Mabel Hunsicker, a former past president of Narberth Juniors recently returned to live in Narberth after residence in Allentown, Pa.

The next regular meeting of the juniors will be Thursday, March 12, at the clubrooms and will be in charge of the Board of Directors. The meeting will be devoted to debate on a most important question of club policy and it is expected there will be a large turnout of juniors who will wish to express a personal opinion on a controversial subject.

Mrs. Harold Griest, chairman of fellowship, reported flowers sent to an ill member, Mrs. Ellsworth Clark, chairman of Book Club, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks. Mrs. Griest herself has been absent from several past meetings due to the illness of her little son, Dickey, who is now convalescing. J. G. M.
